To be completed by Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland

Tribunal Determination

The Mental Health Tribunal for Scotland makes an order (shade one only) -

- extending the compulsion order to which the application relates for 6 months
- O refusing the application to extend the compulsion order
- O refusing the application and revoking the compulsion order

GUIDANCE FOR MEDICAL RECORDS ON THIS DETERMINATION

Extension of order - expiry

The extension will take effect on the day on which the order would have ceased if this extension had not been granted, and will extend the order for 6 months beginning with that day.

Example:

- The Compulsion Order is granted by the Court on the 22nd June 2021.
- The measures specified will cease to be authorised at midnight at the end of the day on the 22nd December 2021 (unless the RMO makes an application to the Tribunal under s149 for extension of the order, and this is granted).
- The extension granted by the Tribunal is effective from the 23rd December 2021 and will cease to authorise the measures specified at midnight at the end of the day on 22nd June 2022 (unless the RMO makes a determination to extend the order).

Refusal

The current order will run until it expires, at which point the patient should be discharged or other arrangements made to continue treatment. A REV2 form should be completed when the order expires.

Refusal and Revocation

The patient should be discharged as soon as practicable or arrangements made to treat the patient informally. A REV2 form should be completed.
